

7

Reasons You Should Join Your State Professional Society

1

Support

You'll get to know people who are just like you. Affiliate members build a camaraderie that lasts a lifetime.

2

Network

You'll meet people who could provide you with mentoring, job search assistance, leads on job openings, and career advice.

3

Stand Out

You're more visible to recruiters when you attend association meetings, events, or volunteer for committees. Make it easy for someone to hire you by showing that you're involved, passionate, and knowledgeable about the issues.

4

Build Your Resume

Volunteering for committees builds organizational and leadership skills that will benefit you in your career.

5

Learning Opportunities

Take advantage of learning opportunities and career advancement training that will help keep you up to date.

6

Protect Your Job

Your state affiliate guards against de-licensure and encroachment from unqualified individuals performing radiologic procedures or radiation therapy treatments.

7

Advance Your Profession

Your affiliate needs you. Add your voice and talents to the pool and it'll strengthen the profession. You are an advocate for the profession.

OSRT is an affiliate of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT)